

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Ruben Ouanounou, a great handball player who has consistently shows skill, motivation, and dedication, on and off the court

Ruben Ouanounou has been an integral part of our ASA Tel Aviv University SC handball team for 6 years. He has been showing along the years the highest level of commitment to the sport with rigorous training regimen, team collaboration, and remarkable performance during competitions. His passion for handball is unparalleled, and he has exhibited a strong work ethic to constantly improve his skills

Off the court, Ruben maintains a high level of sportsmanship and discipline. He is respectful towards teammates, opponents, coaches, and officials alike. Additionally, he has shown responsibility in balancing academic commitments with his athletic pursuits

I strongly recommend Ruben Ouanounou for any opportunities in handball. He is undoubtedly an asset to any team and has the potential to excel in the sport

Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information

Sincerely,
Alon Nagal
